

SPANISH COORDINATOR REPORT FALL ASSEMBLY OCTOBER 13-15, 2023

Hello Al-Anon Family,

At experience as a trusted servant in this panel 61 has been a journey of absolute learning; it allowed me to face my fears and feel capable.

Being part of Alanon is like being born again, enjoying the joy of living and applying the principles of the program.

At this time, We have good news about it:

Spanish Liaison:

* Our Spanish liaison in District 10, as chair of the next gratitude luncheon continues working on it and reminders to start packing your luggage, and start getting travel outfits because "WE ARE FLYING TO SERENITY" She has creative ideas and is involved to Spanish groups to participate. Thank you, Mariangeles for your wonderful service.

* The Spanish Liaison of District 8 informed that groups continue growing and the group Un Día a la Vez is preparing a big celebration next year on July 6th and 7th 2024, by the 20th anniversary. They have invited a speaker from Mexico (Salvador V.) who has almost 50 years in the program.

* Our group Senderos de Amor will participate in the Gratitude Luncheon "Tell Me Your Story" We have prepared the beautiful center table decorations and two members of the group shared your story and read the Traditions. With joy and gratitude, we said Yes! to service.

* In November, We are preparing a meeting information via Zoom, about the Spanish District with a speaker invited from El Paso, TX (Sergio) who has worked in WSO for eight years.

Anniversary Celebration

★ On Sept 16th, “Un Día a la Vez” group celebrated its 19th anniversary in the club from 8 p.m. to 12:00 a.m. with AA participation and an Al-Anon speaker from Seattle, WA.

★ On September 23, the Serenity group celebrated your first anniversary, with Al-Anon and AA speakers it was a beautiful celebration with gratitude in abundance.

Congratulations and Thank you for keeping one more door of recovery.

Convention Area 9:

* The Spanish groups congratulate and thank the 2023 convention committee for considering the Spanish speaker from Mexico in the Saturday general session which had great participation and unity with members from area 9, area 10, and one member from Colorado and Peru.

* Antonio (Spanish liaison for the next convention in 2024) and I have prepared a Spanish flyer with general information about the event and share it with Spanish groups.

In unity, our Spanish groups are growing one day at a time and are involved more and more in service.

I feel infinitely grateful because this valuable opportunity has allowed me spiritual progress that in turn entails more gratitude.
