

Hello Area 9,

Our last AWSC of the panel. I again have so many mixed feelings.

I am happy that even though things are so different, in many ways they are still the same. It's coming to the end of Panel 58 and time to turn over our positions to new willing trusted servants. We in District 6 will be holding elections for the incoming panel very soon. We are busy trying to navigate the new way of reaching people. I always preferred to be able to walk up to someone and talk to them. I personally find it a little daunting to reach out via email or ZOOM. I know that others may find this electronic communication easier. I am trusting that my Higher Power will put those willing to serve in my path.

Gwen has been busy working with our new Webmaster to get the most current information up and posted. She has helped to maintain a "temporary meeting list" of all the Zoom meetings and alternate temporary locations so that we can continue to enjoy our meetings. Gwen has worn many hats this past panel and District 6 is truly blessed to have her. But for now, we are here finishing out our term of service.

I have been busy trying to tie up all the loose ends for the two task forces I have had the pleasure to be a part of. I have been able to work with so many willing and talented people along the way that I feel humbled to have had the pleasure to serve with them all. My life is truly much richer due to my experiences in service. I am thankful that I have had the opportunity to meet most of you before all this STUFF happened. I will count my blessings every day for the experiences I have had and be optimistic for the future! Gwen and I both look forward to seeing all of you soon.
